ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

We acknowledge the Traditional Owners of the land across Australia on which we work and live. We pay our respects to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Elders past, present and future, and we value Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander histories, cultures and knowledge.

About the Artwork

The piece, titled Whirlpool, was painted by artist and Noongar Martu Annabella Flatt. The artwork was purchased in November 2019 from Spinifex Hill Studio in Port Hedland and is on display in our Corporate office in Henderson for all to enjoy.

'When I paint it takes my worries away. It takes the beauty out from within me to put on canvas, so that the world can see I'm a beautiful person within.'

Annabella Flatt, Artist

MEET THE ARTIST

"I'm a Noongar Martu, and a single mum. I started painting about eight years ago. I didn't know I could paint. I could draw – my favourite subject at school was Arts and Crafts. I've lived most of my life in Perth. I only decided to go back home so my kids could learn who they are and where they come from, their culture and language.

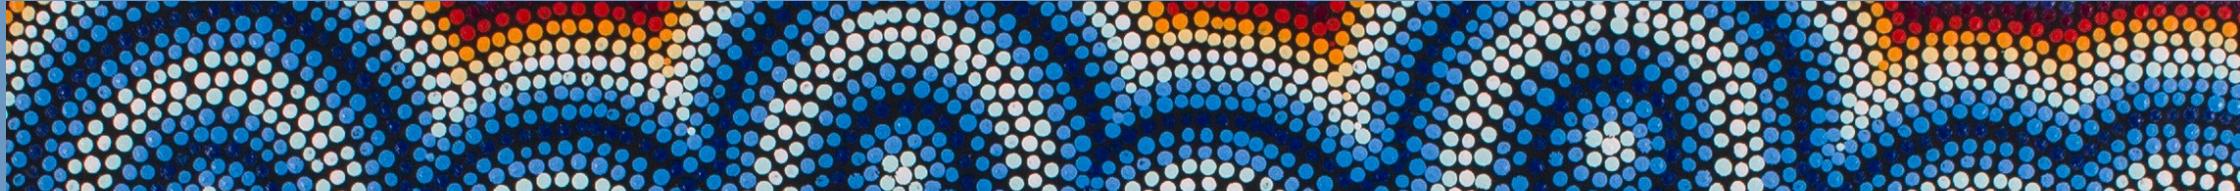

When I paint it takes my worries away. It takes the beauty out from within me to put on canvas, so that the world can see I'm a beautiful person within. I want to become a well-known artist, and for people to appreciate my work. I hope one day I make it. I'd love to become famous for my art. My kids are proud of me. They love my work."

MESSAGE FROM ORONTIDE CEO, STEWART MADDISON

As CEO of Orontide, I am delighted to present our 2020 - 2021 Reflect Reconciliation Action Plan (RAP). We are a WA owned business providing services to our State's major Industry sectors and working across regional areas in the Pilbara and North West of WA, the Goldfields and the South West.

As a company, Orontide is committed to creating sustainable employment and economic opportunities for local people and industry stakeholders in the areas in which we operate and we place a strong focus on providing employment opportunities for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People through our business and our sub-contractors. This commitment extends beyond working in local communities to include actively contributing to them, through the support and utilisation of local services.

Establishing a RAP for Orontide is about taking the next step as we continue our journey to make a meaningful difference to the lives of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. We believe it will help us to deliver on our commitment to contributing to a strong and sustainable future for the communities in which we operate. Our business is built upon our Orontide Values, which we believe are aligned in many ways with the underlying principles of the RAP process.

As we embark on the first stage of our Reconciliation Action Plan (RAP) process, we acknowledge the work that lies ahead and recognise that our journey towards reconciliation is only just beginning. Our approach to the RAP process will involve consultation and collaboration with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people who we believe are best placed to provide guidance on this path to ensure the changes we make and the actions we take are successful. We also acknowledge our requirement for transparency in the process and the need for reporting to Reconciliation Australia on our progress and will endeavour to meet these requirements.

We see the RAP process as an opportunity to make real progress and to build on the foundations of our efforts so far . I look forward to seeing this progress and am confident we will achieve success with our strong commitment to the Orontide RAP.

Stewart Maddison

“We are very aware of the importance of embracing an inclusive workforce culture that supports, values and respects Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees. Our RAP outlines our vision and the steps we will take as a company to achieve this.”

MESSAGE FROM RECONCILIATION AUSTRALIA CEO, KAREN MUNDINE

Reconciliation Australia is delighted to welcome Orontide Group to the Reconciliation Action Plan (RAP) program and to formally endorse its inaugural Reflect RAP.

As a member of the RAP community, Orontide Group joins over 1,000 dedicated corporate, government, and not-for-profit organisations that have formally committed to reconciliation through the RAP program since its inception in 2006. RAP organisations across Australia are turning good intentions into positive actions, helping to build higher trust, lower prejudice, and pride in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures.

Reconciliation is no one single issue or agenda. Based on international research and benchmarking, Reconciliation Australia defines and measures reconciliation through five critical dimensions: race relations; equality and equity, institutional integrity; unity; and historical acceptance. All sections of the community—governments, civil society, the private sector, and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities—have a role to play to progress these dimensions.

The RAP program provides a framework for organisations to advance reconciliation within their spheres of influence. This Reflect RAP provides Orontide Group a roadmap to begin its reconciliation journey. Through implementing a Reflect RAP, Orontide Group will lay the foundations for future RAPs and reconciliation initiatives.

We wish Orontide Group well as it takes these first critical steps in its reconciliation journey. We encourage the organisation to embrace this journey with open hearts and minds, to grow from the challenges, and to build on the successes. As the Council for Aboriginal Reconciliation reminded the nation in its final report:

“Reconciliation is hard work—it’s a long, winding and corrugated road, not a broad, paved highway. Determination and effort at all levels of government and in all sections of the community will be essential to make reconciliation a reality.”

On behalf of Reconciliation Australia, I commend Orontide Group on its first RAP, and look forward to following its ongoing reconciliation journey.

OUR VALUES

Our business is underpinned by our Core Values. These values are the foundation of how we do business, how we interact with each other and how we measure our success. Together, they are the driving force behind our focus on working safely and sustainably, our respect for each other, and the community and environments in which we operate.

Safety

We undertake world-leading safety practices. We look after each other and ensure that safety is our number one priority.

Teamwork

We operate as one team committed to common goals. We show support for each other and empower our people to reach their full potential.

Achievement

We work very hard and therefore celebrate our successes. We promote, recognise and reward outstanding performance.

Integrity

We act with total integrity and with the highest of moral principles. We are honest and ethical in all interactions with our employees, clients and stakeholders.

Respect

We treat each other with the utmost respect, the way that we'd expect to be treated ourselves. We embrace the culture and diversity of our workforce.

Sustainability

We have a continual focus upon the growth, profitability and longevity of our business. We support the communities in which we operate and have an unwavering commitment to minimising our impact upon the environment.

OUR RAP

Our values of Safety, Teamwork, Achievement, Integrity, Respect and Sustainability are aligned in many ways with the underlying principles of the RAP process. The practical actions outlined in our RAP will provide us with a roadmap designed to ensure that Orontide becomes a more inclusive company, benefiting Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and communities. Whilst this is our first RAP, Orontide have been working hard for many years and have made sound progress towards achieving equality and equity within our business through a variety of cultural awareness, acceptance and inclusion activities.

Our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Engagement Policy has now been in place for a number of years and has enabled us to provide opportunities to engage and support Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander suppliers and community groups.

These opportunities have included community partnerships with:

- Tura Music's Regional Touring Program in the Pilbara in support of Indigenous musicians; and
- Royal Lifesaving WA's Spirit Carnival which aims to reduce drowning deaths of children from remote Aboriginal communities in the North;

as well as support of charity groups such as Fair Game where sports equipment is recycled and donated to remote under-serviced areas to inspire healthier, more cohesive communities.

Our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employment Strategy was developed to support our recruitment and selection procedure, and our commitment to local hiring, training and development within the communities in which we operate. Aligning our business with organisations such as the Aboriginal Workforce Development Centre (AWDC) and Norwest Contracting and Rail, has been a valuable step in attracting, recruiting and retaining Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees within our organisation.

Our continued participation in NAIDOC Week aims to bring positive and enduring change to our organisation by engaging employees across our business in support of our nation's focus on reconciliation. And improved race relations.

By developing our first RAP, Orontide will build and strengthen respectful, long lasting, inclusive relationships with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, organisations and communities throughout Australia. Our RAP process will involve consultation and collaboration with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people who we believe are best placed to provide guidance on this path to ensure the changes we make and the actions we take are successful.

Our approach to diversity and the development of our RAP, is led by our CEO, Stewart Maddison and is championed at our highest levels, by the Board and Senior Management Team.
